VIP Service

To be truly elegant one should not be noticed ...

Beau Brummell 1778 - 1840

George Bryan "Beau" Brummell, iconic socialite of the Regency Period. He rejected the over-pompous fashion of the time for one of understated but perfectly fitting clothing. He is often credited for popularising the modern men's suit, worn with tie.

From the beautiful green areas around Hyde Park to the bright lights of the West End, through to the grandeur of Mayfair and Westminster, we are pleased to be able to offer this select list of hotels situated across some of London's most exclusive neighbourhoods for your stay.

Offering years of experience, each hotel has been included as a result of their outstanding standard of service, as evidenced by their popularity with our VIP guests. All are also within our private tours' complimentary collection/return area.

The list comprises an even mix of the best hand picked global brand names, along with the finest boutique gems for that truly individual London experience.

The Marriott Park Lane Hotel

Luxury Hotel

The newest addition to Park Lane, one of London's most famous and distinguished addresses, the Marriott Park Lane's striking grand façade brings back romantic memories of 19th century continental Europe.

Located directly opposite the great open spaces of Hyde Park, contemporary styling mixes with spacious minimalism to offer a warm and welcoming ambience to the London visitor.

Each of the hotel's 157 rooms are tastefully decorated with the finest fabrics and furnishings. Of particular note is the establishment's insistence on offering only the latest technology across its rooms, greatly complementing the feel of the light, modern interiors.

For those wishing for that little extra, the hotel is unique for offering executive suites overlooking Hyde Park and Marble Arch, with the Executive Lounge serving breakfast, refreshments and snacks throughout the day.

Recreational activities include access to the Club At Park Lane, with state of the art gym, swimming pool and steam room.

For dining options visit the onsite 140 Park Lane Restaurant & Bar, a two AA Rosette winning restaurant offering a mouth-watering range of contemporary British dishes.
